SUPERMARKET ROBBERY FOILED

Pair Seized After Bizarre D. C. Bomb Threat

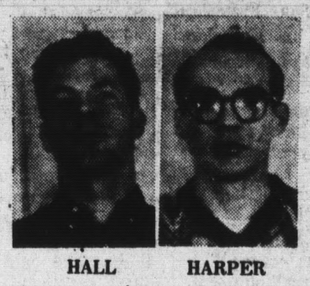
By DON MILLER

A bizarre threat to blow up a Daly City supermarket unless the store's receipts were taken to a nearby rendezvous led to the arrest Friday night of a Pacifica man and a colleague living in San Francisco.

The pair were seized after separate stakeouts by Pacifica Daly City, and San Francisco police and after a tip had been received by San Francisco authorities and relayed to Daly City investigators.

Charged with conspiracy, attempted grand theft, attempted robbery and attempted extortion were Larry Lee Hall, 23, of 424 Pacific Avenue, Pacifica, and Robert C. Harper, 21, of San Francisco.

The two men pleaded innocent to the charges yesterday in Northern Judicial District Municipal Court in South San Francisco. Judge Jose DeLarios adjourned their cases to 9:30 tomorrow morning.



HALL HARPER

Their arrest had been preceded by an anonymous phone call to the Mayfair Market, 2350 Junipero Serra Boulevard in Daly City, at 12:40 a.m., Thanksgiving day. The store was preparing to close at 1 a.m.

The caller told a clerk who answered that unless all the day's receipts were taken to the corner of Garden Gateway and Sullivan Avenue near the rear of the store, a bomb in the store would be detonated by remote control.

What followed was a fast-moving series of events that included:

A quick search of the main floor of the supermarket.

Another phone call to the store from the would-be extortionist, informing a police officer who answered that the bomb would go off in 15 minutes.

An evacuation of the supermarket and a complete but unsuccessful search for the bomb.

A short but futile chase later by a Daly City officer who pursued what appeared to be a possible suspect's car in the vicinity of the store.

The discovery of a crude bomb device the next morning by a seven-year-old boy who first took it home and then took it to a nearby gas station where an attendant severed its wires.

Investigators said Hall was arrested when he returned to his home about 7:30 Friday night. Daly City and Pacifica police had been watching the house.

Harper was arrested after a similar stakeout and after he had arrived at the Hall of Justice in San Francisco Friday night to pay a number of traffic fines.

The "bomb" was found

Ortega Gets Six Students Back Again

Others Will Remain at Linda Mar

Six of 29 children who have been transported from Ortega to Linda Mar school since the beginning of the fall term were returned to Ortega Monday, Fred Lucas, superintendent of the Laguna Salada School District, has disclosed.

Lucas had sent a letter home with each of the 29, advising their parents that because of vacancies now present in Ortega school, the parents could elect to return their children to Ortega.

He said that parents of 16 of the children returned his letter without any comment other than the indication that they wished their children to remain at Linda Mar.

Seven families returned his letter with a note of explanation prepared by the Help Eliminate Lax Planning Committee.

The HELP communication explained, in effect, that inasmuch as Lucas and the board of trus-

HELP Group To Continue Recall Move

Despite reports of dissension within the ranks of Pacifica's Help Eliminate Lax Planning Committee, (HELP), the organization decided Monday night to continue its effort to recall the five-member board of trustees of the Laguna Salada school district.

Eugene Cowhig, chairman of HELP, said the group has decided to carry on vigorously and plans to start circulating recall petitions throughout the district December 15.

Cowhig revealed that two recent decisions by the district have caused some confusion among parents in the Fassler Avenue-Upper Crespi Drive

WEST BAY TRANSIT

2 N. County Men Named to Board

Two North County city officials were named to the newly formed West Bay Transit Authority Friday by the San Mateo County Council of Mayors.

They are Daly City Mayor Micheal DeBernardi and Conrad Reisch, city attorney for both Pacifica and Brisbane. Also named to the eight-man board by the mayors were Belmont Councilman Wallace Benson and Menlo Park Mayor William Lawson.

The four officials will join Supervisors James Fitzgerald, William Werder and Alvin Hatch and Howard Looney of Hillsborough on the board to come up with solutions to the problems of mass transit in the county.

The mayors' council also selected a new chairman to replace Redwood City Mayor John Rosselli, whose term expired last night.

He is San Bruno Mayor Don Risso.

In a "free-for-all" section of the council's agenda, Benson and Rosselli once again criticized the existence of the North County Council of Cities.

They claimed the North County group weakened the authority and prestige of the mayors' council.

Pacelli Is Named to Drive Unit

The Daly City Council has named Councilman Francis Pacelli as the city's representative and section chairman for a fund drive being planned for a Joseph J. Verducci memorial on the San Francisco State College campus.

An organizing committee met last week to discuss a memorial to the former Daly City mayor and supervisor-elect, who died of an apparent heart attack on November 6.

The committee has tentatively decided on the construction of an athletic fieldhouse and funds for the building will come from public subscription.

Glen Smith, assistant to San Francisco State College President Paul Dodd, said more details remain to be worked out, including the make-up of the formal fund drive committee.

Three D.C. Patrolmen Promoted

Three Daly City patrolmen were promoted to sergeant last week by Police Chief Roland Petrocchi. They are William Schumacher, Robert Stables and James Doran.

In another development, Petrocchi announced the department has added six new patrolment to its ranks. The new men are James Olinick, Thomas Crawford, Roger Austin,

Solution to Unification Still Vague

Delay Might Cost Region $300,000

The course of action for school unification in the North County was still undecided this week and may remain so until the middle of January.

The delay could cost the North County approximately $300,000 in state bonus funds, according to County Deputy Superintendent of Schools Al Glantz.

Glantz said a study of North County unification was not on an agenda drawn up for the San Mateo County Committee on School Reorganization for the month of December.

Because of the holidays, he said, it will probably be the second or third week in January before the committee meets to discuss the North County.

He said it appears "very doubtful" the committee could decide on a plan, obtain approval of the State Board and place the proposal before voters before a June 30 deadline set by the state.

The state board rejected three weeks ago the county committee's proposal to split the Jefferson High School District into two unified districts.

Glantz said there is a possibility the county committee may wait until the next session of the legislature in the hopes that sentiment against split district proposals may change.

The new make-up of the county school reorganization committee, it appears, favors unification by small districts, he said.

The same plan to split the Jefferson High School District

Gladieux Defends His Oceana Role

By MARILYN BRANNAN

Basil Gladieux, the embattled manager of the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce, this week strongly defended statements he made last week about the John Birch Society and about his opposition to Oceana's participation in a forthcoming model United Nations debate.

He had acknowledged both in a television interview and to Oceana principal Ernest Ribera that he had played a key part in the preparation of a leaflet, opposing Oceana's role.

The school has been selected by the University of California to act the role of Red China in a model U. N. debate in February. Oceana had competed for the role after being informed it was the only opening available.

The leaflet depicted dead soldiers, whom it described as Americans killed by the Red Chinese during the Korean War.

Gladieux also stated last week "that I have been a member of the John Birch Society all my life although I haven't known it."

In an interview this week, he said he intends to stand by and see what happens next.

"Up to now," he declared, "no one but the local press has criticized me and no charges have been made against me. On the contrary, I've received many letters and telephone calls, offering me support."

Gladieux said he was perplexed that the mayor of Pacifica can qualify his statements as words spoken "only for himself" while any time he (Gladieux) becomes involved in a controversial matter, he is reportedly speaking for the Chamber of Commerce."

"This certainly usurps my

Council Shuns Any Comment

Pacifica city councilmen took a strictly "hands off" stand last week over the controversy on whether a debating team from Oceana High School should be allowed to represent Red China at a model United Nations session at the University of California.

The council refused comment after receiving a letter from Lee Forester demanding the cty withdraw financial support from the Chamber of Commerce because its secretary-manager, Basil Gladieux, has been identified as one of those participating in a letter sent out to parents of high school children.

The letter, identified only by a post office box number, demanded that school officials cancel the debating team's appearance.

The council ordered City Manager Karl A. Baldwin merely to acknowledge the letter.

Big Turnout Expected for Karp Zoning

Fairmont residents are expected to turn out en masse tonight for a special public hearing in Pacifica City Hall on a proposed 400-unit apartment development in their area.

The project was approved by the Planning Commission two weeks ago. A large delegation of Fairmont residents showed up then to oppose the apartments, which would be built by the Karp Development Company.

City Manager Karl Baldwin said the special hearing is being held tonight instead of during the regularly scheduled meeting next Wednesday because the council wants to expedite the already delayed proposal and minimize any possible financial losses.

The situation was complicated when the city put its cart before its horse and failed to hold the legally required public hearings

'Operation Santa' Is Under Way

Daly City's annual campaign straight from the heart is under way again for the 14th consecutive year.

Officially, it's known as "Operation Santa Claus." More informally, it's the community's way of saying thanks for what it has by unselfishly sharing its goods with needy families that, because of one circumstance or another, face an otherwise bleak Christmas.

Last year, 22 fraternal, civic and religious organizations and scores of individuals pitched in to provide each deserving family with the essentials of a cheery holiday observance.

This year, according to co-chairmen Peter J. Markovich, manager of the Daly City Chamber of Commerce, and Elmer Kennedy, Daly City fire chief, "Operation Santa Claus hopes to enlist the support of more organizations and individuals residents than ever before.

Basically, "Operation Santa Claus" channels the volunteer efforts and the gift-giving programs of all segments of the community into one centralized program dedicated to helping the needy.

As in the past, the names of needy families will not be disclosed. The gifts of the community will be delivered by address alone.

Although final figures are not

Daly City Fire Chief 'Critical'

Daly City Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy was in critical condition at Children's Hospital in San Francisco yesterday as a result of a heart attack he suffered last week.

However, doctors indicated that the 59-year-old veteran firefighters was showing "signs of improvement."

Kennedy suffered the heart attack, the second within a week, early Thursday morning at his home. He was rushed to the hospital and had remained in the intensive care section since then.

He has been with the Daly City Fire Department for the past 35 years.

He lives at 301 Vista Grande Avenue with his wife and a daughter. The couple also are

All Westlake Stores Open Every Night 'til Christmas! (Mon. thru Sat.)

Duo Seized After D.C. Bomb Threat

Thanksgiving morning by seven-year-old Vernon Walker of 89 88th Street, Daly City. He discovered it in a brown paper bag under a bench near a door leading to the supermarket.

It consisted of a four-inch length of pipe, filled with gunpowder, with a cooking timer attached to it by wires.

The youngster took the device home where his parents told him to take it to Broadmoor Police Headquarters nearby. The parents were unaware the device contained gunpowder.

Because of the holiday, no clerk was on duty at Broadmoor headquarters and the youth took the device instead to the Standard Station at 2446 Junipero Serra Boulevard.

An attendant, Russell Cunningham of 1612 Sweetwood Drive, Colma, severed the wires and called police.

When the supermarket had first received the telephoned threat, the clerk, Dennis Ellen, 21, of 97 Pinehaven Drive, Daly City, told the caller that he would be at the appointed rendezvous in 15 minutes.

Instead, he notified the store manager, Gary Wenberg, 24, of 1509 Cottage Lane, San Mateo, who called police. Sgt. Thomas Culley and Patrolman James Van Fleet responded.

While the officers were at the store, the phone rang and Culley answered: "Mayfair Markets."

"Let me talk to the cop whose car is parked in front of the door," the caller said.

When Culley informed him he was talking to an officer, the caller replied: "The bomb is still there and it's going off in 15 minutes even though we did not make it this time."

Daly City police and firemen then evacuated and searched the store without any results. Later, Officer Van Pelt noticed an auto leave the scene hurriedly and after a short chase in his patrol car, lost the auto on Lusanne Street.

Van Pelt, however, noted a description of the vehicle and it was this description, together with a tip received by San Francisco police that eventually led to the two suspects.

Participating in addition to Culley and Van Pelt in one phase or another of the investigations, stakeouts, and arrests that followed were Police Chief Roland Petrocchi, Asst. Chief Roy Beecher, Det. Lieutenants John Walsh and Lester Bastedo and Patrolman James Welsh.

tees had informed the parents that good educational practice dictates that children should not be moved more than is absolutely necessary, and since the board had decided earlier that the move is not absolutely necessary, the parents did not feel they could permit Lucas to ignore his own advice.

It further stated that they opposed the transfer but also opposed the re-transfer.

Lucas explained that the vacancies had opened in Ortega School because newcomers in the area have been placed in other schools and an unanticipated number of families have moved out of the Ortega area.

He explained that his offer to allow the children to return to Ortega was an attempt toward fair play on behalf of the school district.

"I know that some of the Fassler Avenue-Upper Crespi Drive parents feel very strongly that their children should be attending the school closest to their homes and before I could consider filling Ortega vacancies with newcomers, I felt it was only fair to give these parents the first opportunity to return their children if they wish," Lucas stated.

area who had strongly opposed the transfer of their children from Ortega to Linda Mar school early this fall.

"Superintendent Fred Lucas' invitation to return our children to Ortega and the board's recent decision to give a Fassler Avenue school priority over the proposed Fairmont school have fogged some perspectives," he said. And he added:

"I feel this promise of a new school is no guarantee of an actual building. Something could always happen to stop things."

Cowhig also said that HELP is not satisfied with Lucas' explanation of the vacancies that opened at Ortega school, allowing the return of any of 29 transferred children.

"It is hard for us to understand how just so many families could move to create just so many vacancies in the primary grades, particularly in an area such as ours that is composed largely of brand-new homes," he said.

"I don't know whether they are bending over backwards for us, acting in light of our recall movement or what," he said.

yet available fort his year, the number of families who will receive Christmas baskets may approach 100, according to the co-chairmen.

Donations of food, toys and clothing may be taken to the Daly City Central Fire Station at 157 Lake Merced Boulevard.

Cash donations may be sent to Markovich in care of "Operation Santa Claus," 6454 Mission Street, Daly City.

Final Winner Picks Twelve

The winner of the Post-Times' final football contest is Otto Stenzel of San Mateo, who guessed 12 of 15 games correctly and gave the nearest estimate of net yards made by the San Francisco 49ers in their game against Baltimore last Sunday.

He won $50.

Jerry Kersey of South San Francisco was one of four others who guessed 12 of 15 games.

rights as an individual. If every word I say automatically reflects the philosophy of the Chamber, then the board of directors will be forced to take action against me because I refuse to shut up or compromise my convictions."

Concerning the John Birch Society, Gladieux said he is proud to belong to the group and had been searching for such an organization all his life.

"The society encourages the rights of the individual and stresses individual action. It states its beliefs and then instructs the member to disagree if he chooses," he explained. And he added:

"I'm sure there are more members of the society who don't know this than those who do."

Because of his statements last week, Gladieux's future role in the Chamber of Commerce has been cast in doubt by chamber directors.

Mrs. Nita Buchanan, acting secretary and a director of the chamber, disclosed that the chamber plans to hire a full-time manager as soon as it finds a qualified applicant.

Gladieux works for the chamber on a part-time basis. His contract is due to expire December 15.

Mrs. Buchanan said Gladieux will be continued in his position after December 15 until a full-time manager is hired.

John Simmons, president of the chamber, said a committee is busy investigating the means of paying a salary of a full-time manager. He declined to name the members of the committee but said each was well qualified.

Mrs. Buchanan, when asked if the chamber would consider Gladieux as a full-time manager after December 15, replied only that Gladieux is a full-time businessman and doesn't want to assume the new position.

"However, she added, "I would hate to speak for Bas on this matter."

Gladieux, however, said he has received no reprimand from the chamber's board of directors and that he doesn't expect to.

When asked if he would consider the position of full-time manager if it were offered to him, he indicated that he would have to think about it.

"I'm asking no accolades," he said. "But I'm sure all those concerned already realize that I have made my chamber position a full-time job now, much to the detriment of my business."

Big Turnout Is Expected

when rezoning for the area was initially requested.

Fairmont originally was zoned as a planned community with the 17 acres in dispute designated as a single family residence zone.

Later, Henry Doelger, builder, asked that the 17 acres be changed from a single to a multiple residence zone to allow Karp to build his apartment development.

The city immediately began proceedings without posting public notice or holding the public hearings required by law.

Baldwin explained that the Planning Commission's hearing two weeks ago and the hearing tonight are to correct this prior omission.

the parents of another daughter and a son.

When Kennedy suffered a mild heart attack on Tuesday of last week, he was placed under a doctor's care.

After Thursday's attack, a fire department resuscitator squad was called to administer oxygen. Members of the squad reported later the chief was conscious and said he did not want to be taken to the hospital.

Earlier this year, Kennedy was hospitalized several weeks because of an attack.

Frank Named For Seminar

Daly City Manager Edward Frank will be one of three Northern California city administrators to speak at a seminar on city-school relationships at U.C.L.A. Monday through Wednesday.

Frank will join 14 other city managers and 15 school administrators in the seminar, sponsored by the university's department of political science.

In 1958-59, Frank worked on a state citizen's advisory committee on local government that studied city-school relationships.

Despite the addition of the six, the department remains under authorized strength. New examinations will be held in January. Deadline for filing for the examinations is January 16.

A new minimum examination qualification of two years of college or the substitution of a year of work will be in effect for the first time, according to personnel director David Rowe.

plish something as a mayors' group," Benson said, "when the county is split in two?"

Rosselli charged the North County has stifled action on such things as salaries and road issues.

Several of the North County members of the mayors' group disagreed vehemently. Risso, DeBernardi, Marvin Church, of Millbrae, and Pat Ahern, of South San Francisco, spoke on the subject.

DeBernardi said he has never known of any conflict between the two groups on any matter of county business.

"I don't think that a problem of flooding from Colma Creek, which affects only Daly City, Colma, South San Francisco and San Bruno, has any place at this (the mayors' council) table," he said.

He said the mayors' council is potentially the strongest group in the county, but its strength could be seriously hampered by bickering between the north and south.

The North County Council supplements this council, he pointed out, it doesn't oppose it.

Rosselli, nevertheless, appointed a four-man committee to study the matter. The committee includes Ahern, Risso, Benson and Ramon de la Velegra, of Half Moon Bay.

1st National Boosts Rate For Savings

First National Bank of Daly City has boosted its rate on one-year certificate savings to 4½ per cent and to 4 per cent on regular savings.

The rate applies to accounts up to $25,000 and has been instituted as part of "a program to attract new individual savings accounts," according to Executive Vice President Evert Terminello.

He pointed out that First National "is a step ahead of other Bay Area banks in instituting the new rate."

It also had paid 4 per cent without certificate while other local banks were yielding only 3½ and 4 per cent with the one-year certificate requirement prior to the Federal Reserve Board rate increase authorization.

Fire Damages D.C. House; Occupants Were on Holiday

Fire, blamed on careless smoking, badly damaged two upper floor rooms of a frame house at 575 Templeton Avenue in Daly City early Sunday morning.

The occupants of the house, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Langwell, were in Oxnard at the time on a Thanksgiving weekend holiday. Investigators said relatives had been staying at the house earlier in the evening.

Battalion Chief Frank Specht said the fire started in an overstuffed chair in a spare room in a garret-type upper floor. It spread to an adjoining bedroom before firefighters brought the flames under control.

Specht said a second alarm was sounded as a precaution. Firemen were at the scene three hours. The fire was contained in about 20 minutes.

Damage was estimated at $8,000 to the structure and $3,000 to the contents.

may be re-submitted to the state board, he pointed out, as was done in a south county plan that also was rejected because of the board's policy against splits.

Jefferson Elementary School District Trustee Thomas Noonan, one of the most outspoken advocates of the North County split, concurred with Glantz' estimate of the timing of the North County study.

Why Not Public Drive for Pool?

The prospect of a swimming pool at Westmoor High School has again emerged in the news.

A recent panel discussion before the Westmoor P-TA brought to light some of the history, as well as some of the obstacles, surrounding the proposed construction of an enclosed pool at the Westmoor site. On January 18, the City Council and Jefferson Union High School District board will meet and discuss entering into a joint agreement to construct the pool.

The chief problem, obviously, is financing. With the $810,000 price tag estimate pinned on the project by architect Mario Ciampi, we don't think the pool will ever be more than just a vision. Neither the school district nor the city can afford to invest this kind of money for a pool installation.

AN ANSWER to this dilemma is to alter specifications and provide for something quite a bit less ornate than the $810,000 monument. Something in the neighborhood of about half that figure would seem realistic. The school district should seek other estimates to determine if there is something available in a more modest price range that would still meet community needs.

Secondly, we would like to add to the methods suggested for financing the pool. To the three avenues proposed—bond issue, assessment district, or "pay-as-you-go" — we suggest a fourth: public financial sponsorship.

The school district and the city have already indicated a willingness to undertake the program on a joint basis. Therefore, it will be a community-sponsored, community-financed effort.

Since it will be the individual taxpayers who ultimately wind up paying for the project, why not go to them as individuals and ask for the funds to build a pool.

THE NEED for a public swimming pool to serve the western section of Daly City has long been voiced, and yet, until some real impetus is provided, it doesn't appear that a Westmoor pool is any closer to reality today than it was in 1957 when it was first included in the design for Westmoor.

Other communities have gone out and raised funds for similar projects and in achieving their end goal have generated a new and genuine public spirit and enthusiasm.

A pool building fund drive, originating from parents of youngsters who will enjoy the benefits, seems to us a likely way to get the Westmoor pool out of the "planning" and into the "doing" stage.

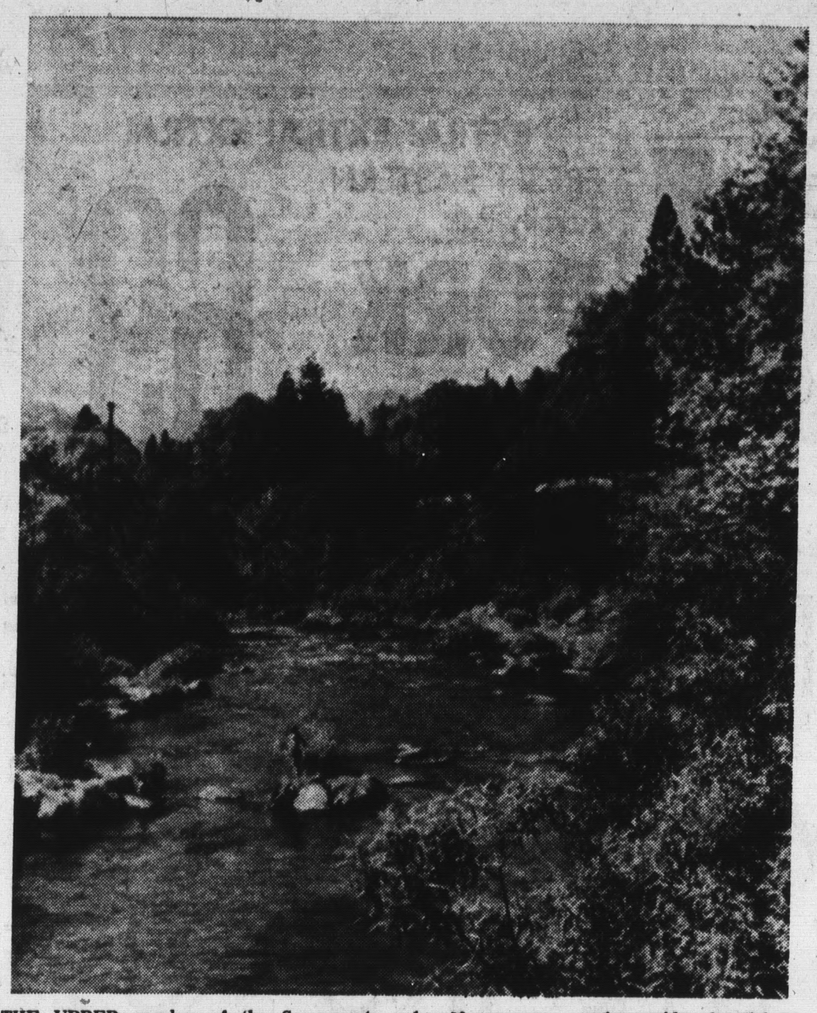
It is improbable that such a drive could raise sufficient funds to finance the whole project. But even under a school-city matching fund basis, the program certainly has merit.

WHETHER it be the P-TA, a group of volunteer parents, or a committee appointed jointly by city and school officials it really doesn't make too much difference. If Daly City residents could go out on their own and raise a substantial sum towards the construction of the pool, it would certainly provide the guidance that local governments would need to commit supplementary funds.

Numerous meetings have been held over the years to discuss the would-be Westmoor pool. But nobody has yet put any money in the kitty.

An appeal to the public for funds just might be the answer. Let's give every one of Daly City's 60,000 residents an opportunity to be a part owner in his own swimming pool.

Castle Crags Park



THE UPPER reaches of the Sacramento River meander through Castle Crags State Park in Shasta and Siskiyou Counties, just a few miles south of Dunsmuir. The park contains 5,200 acres of forested land, ranging in altitude from approximately 2,000 feet along the river to 6,500 feet at the top of the thumb of rock known as Castle Dome. The park has 59 campsites and is considered a fisherman's paradise. More than 200 lakes are accessible by road and trail and are restocked yearly by the state. The park also is noted for its great variety of shrubs, trees, and flowers. This is another in a series on parks and historical areas within a day's driving time of the North County.

A Penchant For Moving

Don Miller

CALIFORNIANS, it can be accurately said, have a persistent penchant for moving. Just exactly why this is so hasn't been thoroughly diagnosed to date but for some reason or another, a change of locale seems to pop up on a good number of household agendas with rather startling frequency.

One of the more interesting aspects of this western phenomenon is that once another shifting of the hearthstone has been duly completed, one and all involved in the move solemnly declare—with every muscle complaining in the background—that this is the LAST move. Which, as those of us who are caught up in this shuffling of addresses will agree, is as far from the truth as Peking is from Moscow.

Why frequent moves appeal so much to Californians is doubly perplexing when you stop to consider all the problems and complexities of picking up bag and baggage and shuttling the whole business off to new diggings.

For example, you've got to notify the post office and then pray they don't lose the little pink card and that Aunt Bessie's anthology-length letter will be delivered in at least the same quarter of the year in which it was compiled.

Then, too, the paper boy and the milkman should be given ample notice or those who succeed you in the old homestead will reap the benefits of free reading and drinking until you get around to doing what you should have done a long time ago.

The same goes for the lights, the gas and the water and particularly the telephone. Somehow, it always comes as a profound shock to receive your "closing" telephone bill and note an imposing list of expensive long distance calls that you didn't make but that were made by the family that moved in after you did because you had forgot to tell the phone company to pull the switch on the day you left.

THERE'S ANOTHER aspect of this wanderlust that would make a fine case study for a sociologist. And that is the lack of basic preparation for moving on the part of a considerable number of California families on the go.

It seems to be an acute attack of procrastination that befalls these folks for the packing and the sorting and the throwing out of unwanted household goodies is all too often sluffed off until the 11th hour is suddenly at hand and the enormity of the task is finally faced sullenly and reluctantly.

When zero hour finally arrives it usually signals the start of a day of horrors in which nothing goes right and everything, but EVERYTHING, goes wrong.

For example, if you're the brave sort and think you need the exercise and thereby decide to move the family empire and its belongings yourself rather than pay the professionals to do it for you, then you're subject to no end of perils.

For it invariably turns out that after you've rented the open-top truck for a day the weatherman has solemnly promised will be fair and sunny, this is the day Jupiter Pluvious decides to embark upon a binge and no manner of earthly incantations or silent prayers can stem the deluge that follows.

There is a certain unpleasantness about laying down a mattress and box springs that look and feel as if they have just been spewn forth from an automatic washer right after the third rinse.

ONE OF the more heartwarming sidelights of moving yourself is the comfortable feeling you have that stems from a veritable avalanche of offers of help for the big day from folks who range all the way from the barest of acquaintances to the fastest of friends.

Unfortunately, this feeling too often is like the martini before the hangover for when moving day dawns, there is an absolute dearth of humanity in the environs. The absenteeism among those who had faithfully promised to be on hand could be compared to school attendance on the opening day of the baseball season, except that the excuses that roll in via telephone are far more ingenious than grandmother's final rites.

The general order of procedure in such calamitous circumstances is to tactfully but firmly remind the would-be absentees of the help you had given them on a similar occasion and, after all, they wouldn't want to be thought of as ingrates, now would they?

ONCE HELP has been Shanghaied by one means or another, the actual moving process, as it stumbles along through the day, becomes entwined with memorable little incidents that are cursed over at the time but that provide a full larder of story-telling fare for the recuperation period that follows.

One of these incidents always concerns that decorator's dream of a couch, but which is verily a nightmare for anyone thinking of moving time rolled fatefully around again, it had been wrenched up those three flights of stairs when you had moved into your apartment.

It had taken a barrel of tricks and gimmicks to accomplish the feat and everyone, almost in unison, had chortled that the modus operandi should not be forgotten for when mvoing time rolled fatefully around again, this knowledge would be priceless in exiting said couch from the premises.

Yet, at the appointed hour, no one remembers what everyone said should be remembered and the moving of the couch more often than not turns out to be even more of a near-disaster than the first time.

PERHAPS the greatest peril of trundling off to a new headquarters is the general state of disarray that prevails once everything has been moved. If pre-moving planning has been up to the usual norm, one always runs the very real risk of arriving at the office the next day wearing mis-matched socks, shoes that had been awaiting a Goodwill truck, a pair of trousers that were in vogue during depression, a shirt three months overdue for a button, a tie that Rover had mistaken for the tail of the neighbor's cat and a coat that hadn't been altered when you lost the battle of the bulge too many years ago to remember.

It is at this stage of the game that the sacred vow never to move again is muttered somewhat incoherently and often through clenched teeth. Yet, as we all know, Father Time patiently helps us to gloss over the perils of the past and it isn't long before we're down at the post office again for those change of address cards.

A Sign of The Times?

Ron Bates

EVERY CITY seems to have at least one street that is more lighted than the rest—not because of the street lights but because it is a street lined with businesses.

The additional light is from the stores' neon signs that blink c l i c k, and shout and do everthing except grab you by the throat to get your attention.

Yet, despite all this activity, signs are usually only subconsciously noticed.

The question of signs came up at a study session of the Daly City Council last week when councilmen discussed recent actions of the planning commission.

A business on Mission Street had asked for a use permit for a sign using a flashing arrow.

The city supposedly has an established policy against all flashing signs because they are traffic hazards in that they conflict with traffic signals.

THE POLICY, I think, seems logical from a safety standpoint and it seems even more logical from an aesthetic viewpoint.

The fly in the ointment seems to be enforcement of the policy.

Even as the planning commission, and subsequently the council, was considering the subject, the arrow in question was blinking away on Mission Street.

It was flashing along with several other signs, similar in design.

T h e planning commission had recommended approval of the sign, provided it did not flash. Commissioner Tony Masini said he had informed the owner of the buisness of the city's policy on flashing signs.

THE ITEM WAS yanked off the council's agenda, however, because the cooncilmen got involved in a debate centered a r o u n d the premise that "what's good for the goose is good for the gander."

In other words, why should this sign be d e n i e d while across the street and a half a block away are f l a s h i n g arrows.

The councilmen want to find out if those arrows are flashing legally.

So, the staff of City Engineer Bill Chapman will be going back over the city's record to see which signs are legal and which are not.

It will be interesting to see the results of Chapman's investigation and the enforcement procedures put into effect because of it.

IT SEEMS TO ME that if nothing were done about any signs found to be illegal, it would be an affront to both the Planning Commision and the city council. For it would mean, in effect, that their actions carry no authority.

Perhaps the enforcement of sign controls should be put into the hands of a special committee so as to insulate the councilmen from pressure from merchants.

I think something should be done, however, because if the trend toward flashing signs c o n t i n u e s, the street could wind up looking like the board walk in Atlantic City or Coney Island.

The control of signs on Mission Street, I think, is particularly important.

With the addtion of the attractive First National Bank of Daly City building and some new office buildings near the War M e m o r i a l Community Center, Mission Street seems to be undergoing a renaissance of sorts that could be marred by honky-tonk signs.

IT'S EVIDENT that the Planning Commission is trying. Recently, the commissioners turned down use permits for two large Mission Street signs that would have been viewed by motorists on the Southern Freeway.

The commissioners at first held up the permits to see if state funds for landscaping would have been withheld because of the signs.

They would not have been, it turns out, but the commission decided not to permit the signs to be erected anyway because they would set a precedent.

Who knows? Maybe this could be a sign of the times.

'The Book Was Better'

Barbara Bladen

THERE'S A STANDARD joke about a man who comes out of a four-hour biblical movie and comments, "It was all right, but the book was better."

There are so many ways of packing a plot these days one can't remember from year to year if he saw the play, or the movie, read the book or heard the record. Back in the risky days of production financing, before supermarkets and instant theatre in the suburbs made the investment as secure as an utilities stock, the backers had to like the story before they committed themselves to being an "angel." Now they'll put their money on a director's name, or choreographer, if his name is Jerome Robbins.

Last month on Broadway, Columbia Record Company, a frequent musical comedy investor, put nine thousand dollars into a show entitled "Rich Little Rich Girl." It was to have marked the stage debuts of film actress Jean Simmons mons and Italian actor Raf Vallone, co-starring with Larry Blyden but it turned out to be a tryout casualty.

The show folded in Philadelphia after a two-week tryout, dropping a $150,000 investment down the proverbial drain. But Columbia figures it got its money back with the original cast album rights.

So now there's a record on the market of a show that was never produced. It had a very exclusive audience if that's any consolation to tryout town viewers.

I SAW A SHOW several years ago that was most enjoyable. "Tenderloin" produced the hit song, "Artificial Flowers," which raged across the country's radio stations and juke boxes. We liked it so much that when it played in Las Vegas, we flew down just for one night to see it. But the road company never toured, it never made it to San Francisco and I've been trying to buy the album ever since. No one ever heard of the show. Everyone knows the hit song, but no one knows where it originated.

With the big success of "My Fair Lady" both on and off the screen, there are two original cast albums. In most cases this would mean two different interpretations of the same show but when the original Broadway cast shows up on the original movie sound track, it adds up to foolish marketing.

As for duplication, also add the pocketbook edition of a hard-back n o v e l, and the recording of an entire play, "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf" and "The Glass Menagerie" are my latest purchases. That's after seeing the play, reading the script, and seeing excerpts on television. There's more ways than skinning a plot than a cat.

Peninsula Panorama

Golden Brown Compromise

George Whitesell

A GENTLE READER called us the other day to tell us that she was having toaster trouble.

She was hot because her toaster was cold.

She said that she had been in touch with the manufacturers of the toaster and they told her there was nothing wrong with it, but that she should refrain from toasting bread with honey in it because this tends to gum up the works. They suggested that she visit a repair station.

And," she complained, "if you do that they charge you for it."

She makes toast for about a dozen people, including grandchildren, each morning and apparently no two of them like their toast the same way.

Some of them want it practically charred, some golden brown, and others want only a soft suggestion of sunburn.

And her husband, for health reasons, has to use bread with honey in it and he insists on having it toasted.

"What do I do now?" she asked in a vigorous spirit of "Prisoners of toast arise, you have nothing to lose but your crumbs!"

THIS DEPARTMENT has dutifully investigated and, in honesty, must report that toast trouble does not seem to be widespread on the Peninsula.

As nearly as we could learn, most families, no matter how individual members of the family like their toast, reach a sort of compromise on the golden brown variety and toast happily ever after.

Nor were there any complaints on the performance of automatic toasters beyond the fact that, like any other appliance, they eventually wear out or require repairs.

One older woman told us: "I am all for automatic toasters. When I think of how I used to make toast in the oven or on top of the gas range, of the thousands of slices of burned toast I have scraped, and of how I used to burn my fingers every morning, I could kiss the man that invented the pop-up toaster."

WE TALKED to a waitress to see if there is a toast problem in the restaurant trade.

She said that there is a problem but that all restaurant people are so used to it that it does not bother them much.

"When somebody just orders toast and coffee, you can bet that they want the toast good and hot," she explained. "But if they get the toast along with a larger breakfast the chances are that they won't eat very mueh of it. There's an awful lot of waste.

"Then there are the butter fiends. They order buttered toast and then they ask you for butter and put still more of it on.

"But the worst are the businessmen who get to talking while they are eating. They talk and drink coffee for a half hour after they are served—then they call you and tell you the toast is cold. It is cold, but this kind of thing can raise a girl's temperature."

A REPAIRMAN was in favor of automatic toasters but had a few violent words to say about their owners.

"There ain't nothing wrong with them toasters, all of the brands are pretty good and they ain't hard to fix when something does go wrong. But people always act like we was overcharging them.

"If you want to know the truth, fixing toasters is a dirty job and a lot of the cost is for cleaning them up. It seems like no people don't never clean no toasters. Nearly every one we get is full of old crumbs and gunk.

"You find all kinds of stuff in them, pencils, pens, bobby pins, marbles, and once a pair of glasses.

"And with all those crumbs every once in a while a mouse crawls in and can't get out."

This final statement raises a subject upon which this department did not care to speculate further.

But the repairman is a toast fan himself and he gave us a tip. "If you toast bread before you make French toast it will be twice as good."

We tried it, and it was.

The Book Shelf

By SAMUEL CHANDLER
Daly City Librarian

I HAVE BEEN asked to review Wallce Stegner's "The Gathering of Zion," which is a re-telling of the story of the Mormon trail.

But, I am somewhat weary of books about Mormons. With boresome rapidity, they fall into types. Noticeable are:

Those written by believers to promote understanding and win converts; those by disbelievers who can not go their way and leave it alone and finally those by men who try to tell the whole emotional story with detachment and objectivity.

"The Gathering of Zion" is one of the best of the latter type. Maybe Stegner, who stems from a non-Mormon background in Utah, is the Mormon's best friend among contemporary authors of note.

Surely his treatment is more fair than those of the apostles —Bernard DeVoto and Fawn McKay Brodie. It is, perhaps, less documented than some histories but surely more readable.

THE WHOLE BOOK, however, is colored by the author's position as a benevolent disbeliever. I was annoyed by some of his barbed thrusts and his jaundiced remarks.

His endless quotations from u n f r i e n d l y biographies of Joseph Smith and Brigham Young weakens the book.

Nevertheless, "The Gathering of Zion" is one of the most moving histories I have ever read. It is a story of misery, of courage, of human emotion, of "modern Israel" on the march through mud holes and sandstorms with sore toes and aching bellies.

The heroism of the Utah pioneers is not minimized, though often scoffed at. The courage of a people that American Heritage calls the best prepared pioneers shines from the first page to the last.

With Stegner's "Mormon Country," "The Gathering of Zion" forms an interesting interpretation of an old, often told tale.

IN DALY CITY

Teen Councils Named by Clubs

The seven junior teen clubs sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department have completed selection of their new executive councils.

The nine-member councils will be responsible for the planning, organizing, promoting and running of the clubs' activities as well as the formulation and enforcement of rules and regulations.

The clubs and new officers are:

Bovines — Carl Bevels, Silvio Downing, Reuben Guerra, Scottie Leonard, Hilda Lopez, Frances Machi, Lester Smith and Dale Zaleski.

Casualiers — Danny Fisher, Diane Ciario, Sue Brassesco, Greg Solari, Brad Benton, Ray Montalbano, Debbie Camp, Mike Cardoza and Rachael Howard.

Imperials—Michelle Backlund, Connie Taylor, Donna King, Bob Nelson, Jean Nelson, Nancy and Cindy Spitzer, Dorothy Redmond and Ken Yasso.

Majestics and Know Names—Not available at press time.

Roof Raisers—Cheryl Yochim, Ron Wells, Linda Giovannetti, Shelley Gerner, Terri Dulac, Janet Reichel, Kathy Biagini, Oliva Anderson and Lisa Kaplan.

Telstars—Viv and Dave Goldman, Steve Petillo, Steve Levin, Lisa Kaplan, Bill Brown, Marty Lovrin, Jan Karp, Bambi Seltenrich and Larry Yamaron.

A training workshop and get-acquainted party for all of the new council members will be held Saturday at the Westlake Park Clubhouse from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

The activity will give the new leaders an opportunity to get better acquainted with their own council members and those from the other clubs.

They will also receive some training and guidance in duties and responsibilities from adult club advisers.

The period of time from the opening of the clubs in October through the recently completed All-Teen Carnival was used as a probationary period for members interested in belonging to the council.

During that period, they not only planned and worked on their club's part in the carnival, but also assisted in the planning of the club's first few activities.

The club advisors last week nominated 15 youngsters to be placed on the club's ballot for election by the general membership.

Band Dance, Hayride Set By D.C. Clubs

A hayride and band dance are on the calandars for the Ticky Tacky and Hi Fi Teen Clubs, respectively Sturday evening.

The two senior high clubs are sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department.

The Ticky Tacky Club will leave the Westmoor High School parking lot at 6:30 p.m. for the trip to Big Bear Ranch in Oakland and the hayride through Redwood Park.

Cost of the trip will be $2.25 for members and $2.75 for guests. Included in the cost are the hayride, a barbeque and the bus trip.

The Hi Fi Club's monthly band dance will feature the muisc of The Shadows. It will also be a membership night.

HOWARD KEEL is the star of "South Pacific," which opened last week as the sixth musical of the season at the Hyatt Music Theater in Burlingame. The show will continue through Sunday. Co-starred is Jane A. Johnston, portraying the role of Nellie Forbush.

Annual Snow Trip Details Are Outlined

Details for the annual snow trip for senior teen clubs sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department have been announced.

The trip to Soda Springs Ski area will be held from February 5 to 7.

Cost of the outing is $20.50 for members and $25 for guests, which includes chartered bus transportation, two nights' lodging and five meals at the Beacon Hill Lodge, use of a heated swimming pool, sauna bath and recreation hall for dancing and entertainment and medical insurance coverage.

Also available for those attending will be two optional items—$3 ticket for two days of rope tows and one-hour ski lesson and a $3.75 rental price for skis, boots and poles for the entire weekend.

The teen club members will leave Daly City at 4 p.m. Friday, February 5, and return Sunday evening.

Accompanying four bus loads of youngsters expected to participate will be teen club advisers, tour guides and parent chaperones under the direction of Alan Boyd, supervisor of youth activities.

An added feature to the snow trip outing will be a three-night ski school conducted at the War Memorial Community Center January 13, 20 and 27 for those planning to attend, Boyd said.

The ski school will include information about the trip, ski instruction and movies and slides on the Soda Springs area.

Complete information, a sign-up blank and parent permission slip will be available at all senior teen club activities.

Deadline for registration and a $5 non-refundable deposit is January 16. Complete payment must be made by January 30. Additional information may be obtained by calling Alan Boyd at the Recreation Department, PL 5-0850.

HUBCAPS STOLEN

Roy Johnson of 209 Canyon Drive, Daly City, reported to police last week that thieves had stolen hubcaps from his auto, parked in front of his home.

Grasso Wins Fitness Role Certificate

Joe Grasso, president of the Pacifica Little League since 1957, has been awarded a certificate by the Pacifica Junior Chamber of Commerce, citing him for "physical fitness leadership" in Pacifica.

His name will be entered in state competiton that could lead to national competition seeking to determine the nation's three top leaders in physical fitness.

The national contest is sponsored by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Grasso received the certificate from Pacifica Mayor Fred Ballew at a Jaycee dinner in Nick's Rockaway Beach Restaurant.

He was nominated by the Little League, which noted that the league has grown from eight teams to 32 teams with more than 450 boys participating since Grasso took the helm.

Other Pacifica physical fitness leaders who received recognition at the dinner were:

Marge McCoy of 640 Canyon Drive, a Girl Scout leader for 18 years, an advisor for Rainbow Girls for several years and a member of the Pacifica Welfare Referral Service.

Mary F. Beauvais of 811 Linda Mar Boulevard, a Red Cross and Girl Scout volunteer worker, Sunday School teacher and a member of the Pacifica Recreation Commission.

Clay Thompson of 1512 Adobe Drive, Boy Scout leader, past president and vice president of the Little League and a coach for the league.

Harold R. Myers of 1161 Alicante Drive, secretary and manager in the Little Leauge and a volunteer in Boy Scout work.

Robert A. Kehoe of 1575 Flores Drive, long active in Boy Scout work, a player-manager in a Pacifica volleyball league and a player-manager in a basketball league sponsored by the Pacifica Park, Beach and Recreation Department.

South San Francisco school officials want to explore the idea of annexing their unified district to the San Mateo Junior College District, President Julio L. Bortolazzo of the college revealed last week.

He said he has been invited by individual trustees and Superintendent Paul Nielsen to eet with the South San Francisco board at its Monday session.

South San Francisco Unified School District is the only populated area in the county now outside the junior college district. Sole other unannexed area is on the rural south Coastside.

Dr. Bortolazzo disclosed the new South San Francisco interest at a meeting of the college board, held in the administration building on the San Mateo campus.

He explained that the matter could be placed before South San Francisco voters at the next school election, in April.

It is important both for the college and the unified district that a decision be reached soon, according to Dr. Bortolazzo.

Auto-Train Collisions Injure 3

Two train-auto collisions at a South San Francisco crossing last week resulted in only minor injuries to the parties involved. Police said those riding in the automobiles in each instance were "extremely lucky."

The crashes occurred on a spur line of the Southern Pacific Railroad at the Chestnut Street crossing.

There are no crossing gates at the csene, only a wig-wag type of signal.

In one accident Friday, two girls were treatde at Kaiser Foundation Hospital in South San Francisco after the rear of their car was sturck by a slow-moving train.

The girls are Theresa M. Church, 16, of 151 Escanyo Drive, South San Francisco, the driver, and Carole Ann Fredericks, 15, of 632 Newman Drive South San Francisco, a passenger in the auto.

The rear of their car was sheared off by the train according to ambulance attendants but the girls were unharmed. They were treated for shock.

Donations Sought for Baskets

Donations to Pacifica's annual Christmas basket program will be accepted at Pacifica City Hall until 3 p.m. Friday, December 18, according to Lee Flaherty, secretary of the Pacifica Welfare Referral Board, which is conducting the drive.

After December 18, additional donations will be accepted until December 22 in Room 2.

The baskets will be packed that day and delivered the next day. Lists of needy families will be furnished by schools in the Laguna Salada School District.

Any resident who knows of a family who would benefit by the receipt of a Christmas basket may contact the Referral Board at city hall.

Thieves Take $700 in Gems

Thefts of jewelry from a private home and petty cash and a record player from the Westlake branch of the Daly City library were reported to Daly City police over the weekend.

Jerry Nissim of 18 Lakeview Drive said jewelry valued at $700 had been taken from his house.

IF SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO'S spectacular junior halfback, Greg Jones, doesn't get strong consideration for All Northern California, something's wrong with the system.

Experts didn't figure Jones could be much better than he had been in his sophomore season when he was a unanimous choice for All-NPL, but this year he was greater, being chosen on both the offensive and defensive all league squads, and what he might do next year staggers the imagination.

He gained 735 yards this season averaging better than 10 yards a carry, and tallied 15 touchdowns—even though he averaged playing less than half of each game.

This latter statistic is a tribute to Coach Ray DeJong who generally refused to pour it on teams that were usually way down to the Warriors and who also avoided the temptation of bloating Jones' statistics for the sake of the statistics.

There are many high school coaches who, having a player of Jones' caliber, would do this. Some of them have the idea that every yard one of "their boys" compiles is a direct reflection on them and not always necessarily of the boy.

We remember that when Dick Bass (now the fine fullback for the Rams) was compiling fantastic records at Vallejo High, he was seldom removed from a game no matter what the score and, as his records mounted, was "fed" more and more so that often his backfield mates were out there merely for decorative purposes.

So, without pouring it on, DeJong and South City won a title and ended Westmoor's NPL football domination, and Jones made all NPL and led the league in rushing and scoring.

With Jones and a host of other fine juniors returning next season, it looks as if DeJong and Company will be able to duplicate all of 1964's records—and, once again, without pouring it on.

THE COASTSIDE, incidentally, should give a special vote of thanks to Oceana's big guard, Steve Rentmeester, who single-handedly prevented Pacifica schools from being shutout on All-NPL voting. He made the first string offensive squad.

Speaking of shutouts, poor Terra Nova did gain a distinction of sorts. They had a perfect record—not having scored a point in league competition.

But don't snicker too hardily. The Tigers show potential, at times, and frosh-soph Coach Terry Moss whipped home the first winning cub team in TN history.

He'll tell you, secretly, that he had some kids who could have played regularly with the varsity this year.

YOU CAN BELIEVE this next story or not, because to be quite honest, we're still not sure if it ever really happened.

Floyd Gonella, Terra Nova's ex-football coach, now vice principal, tells it about Clarence Lair, Terra Nova science teacher who coached Floyd when both were at Jefferson.

"We were on the practice field one day, and Clarence had been complaining about how we hadn't been hitting people hard enough. Well, there were some trains coupling up at the tracks near the field and Clarence had his back turned just as two cars coupled, really crashing together.

"Clarence wheeled around. 'Who did that, who did that,' he shouted. 'Now THAT'S the way I want to hear you guys hit'."

Gonella certifies the truth of the story. Lair denies any memory of the event.

But it makes for a good, typical football story.

SAN FRANCISCO STATE athletes, you may have noticed, really hit the headlines of metropolitan papers last week.

Unfortunately, their adventures had to do only with sports.

Swimmer Dirk Van Gelder, a breastroke expert, was asked by Coach Walt Hansen to shave his beard because it was felt that there were enough demonstration, writing, drama and art majors sporting excess fuzz without athletes spreading States' beatnik reputation as well.

And besides, there's a school of thought that body hair reduces the speed of swimmers and Gator natators are required to either shave or eliminate all body hairs.

But Ara Hairabedian, Van Gelder's former coach at Fresno State, disagreed with the theory, which is what really tended to make the controversy. What Hairabedian failed to mention, however, was that Van Gelder was clean-shaven when he swam for Fresno in 1962.

Upshot of the affair was that Van Gelder said he would shave if it was merely for athletic purposes and not because of beard discrimination as such.

After all, he argued, he does sing with his beard at broadmoor Presbyterian Church and neither the church nor the art department (Van Gelder majors in art, incidentally) is complaining.

At this writing, we have not heard of the fate of Van Gelder's beard.

But we suggest he keep it.

He could make a fortune in North Beach. After all, some beer parlor could pick him up and what other San Francisco hot spot would be able to boast of a bearded topless bathing suit swimmer?

EVEN MORE spectacular headlines were made by five State footballers who celebrated the end of the season by knocking down potted trees in San Francisco's financial district and concluding their evening out in a paddy wagon.

Since State didn't win the Far Western Conference football championship this year for one of the few times in the past decade or so, we have a suggestion for the Misters Angelo Crudo, Randy Ketlinski, Dennis Drucker, Dennis Dow and Neil Shea.

Perhaps, this past season, they should have knocked down more people than planters.

BUT NOW for some equal time for the positive side of Gator sports.

When 5-10, 180-pound all-league halfback Bill Baird graduated a couple of years ago and announced he was going to give pro ball a crack, everybody told him he was too small—that he'd be better off picking up his teaching credential and settling down to a nice, quiet classroom.

A few weeks ago, the New York Jets came to Oakland and their leading pass intercepter was one Bill Baird, who is now operating in both of the two best worlds.

In the off-season he teaches at San Francisco's Lincoln High.

The Game Is Played THIS Way . . .

. . . And THIS Way

SAN FRANCISCO State College basketball coach Paul Rundell (above) explains some of the finer points of the game to these Daly City youngsters at a basketball clinic in the War Memorial Community Center. The clinic, held Friday night, was co-sponsored by the State team and the Daly City Recreation Department. It also featured a session on strategy for coaches who guide teams in department-sponsored leagues. At left, Joe Gallo, a member of the 1964-65 State team, demonstrates the proper way to hold a ball. The clinic covered everything from the hook shot to defensive tactics.

Rams Seek Third Title

Three Vets To Bolster Champions

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of articles on how basketball coaches in the North Peninsula League view the upcoming season and their appraisal of the strengths and weaknesses of their clubs.)

By RON BATES

WESTMOOR COACH Tony Giammona hopes the number 3 will be lucky for him in the upcoming North Peninsula League basketball derby.

With three first stringers returning to the fold, he would like to continue some streaks that were started when the league itself was started two and a half years ago.

Since then, his teams have won the league title and the Most Valuable Player Award. Giammona himself has won the Coach of the Year Award.

Of his three returning starters, two of them are all-leaguers — forward Jim Mason and guard John Price. The third is center Jerry Donovan.

MASON, a transfer student last year, was a unanimous choice to the first string of the All-NPL. He was narrowly edged out for the Most Valuable Player award by teammate Mike Hannigan.

The 6-1 senior was probably the key factor in Westmoor's title win last year. He was both a strong rebounder and an accurate shooter.

He was nosed out of the league's scoring title in the final game of the season by Walt Harris of the El Camino Colts. Mason finished with 162 points to Harris' 170.

Mason last year became the first North Peninsula League player ever to be named to the All-Star team in the Peninsula Tournament at Palo Alto.

During a game against Los Altos, he set a school scoring record of 27 points.

PRICE, the Rams' other returning all leaguer, was the team's best outside shooter last year, Giammona says, and should supplement Mason's inside scoring ability.

A 5-11 senior, Price was sixth in league scoring with 125 points — a 12.5 average.

Has High Hopes

Donovan, the Rams' 6-3 center, is probably the team's "most improved player" over last year, Giammona says.

"He came on strong toward the end of last season and he looks good so far this year."

THE EXPERIENCE of these three players and a stronger bench than last year make Giammona believe that if he doesn't have another championship team, he certainly has "a tough one."

"I'm really pleased with the attitude of the players so far. There seems to be a lot of competition for the starting roles.'

One of the biggest problems that faces Giammona is finding a replacement for Hannigan, the Rams' playmaker.

Backing up Price at guard will be Roger Foss, Tom Lee, Dave Bjorquist, Tom Parker, John Heick and Don Lippi.

Foss, a good ball handler and passer according to Giammona, made all-league on the C-team last year. Lee and Parker are substitutes from yast year's varsity and Bjorquist, Heick and Lippi are up from the 30s.

TRYING TO UNSEAT Donovan at the center slot are John Putnam and Dave Williams. Putnam, an all-league player on the 20s two years ago, was Donovan's back-up man last year. Williams, a 6-4, 220-pound senior, may give the Rams some added strength on the boards.

At the forward slot with Mason will be either senior Joaquine Andrade, senior Rich Adkins, junior Corky Phelps or junior Larry Baker.

Andrade was all league on the 20s two years ago and a substitute on last year's team. Adkins was also a varsity player last year. Phelps and Baker moved up from the 30s.

Two of the younger members of the varsity who may break into the lineup at forward are sophomore Jeff Long and freshman Grady Proctor, a 6-1, 165-pounder who "looks good," Giammona says.

SIZING UP the rest of the league, Giammona figures South San Francisco as one of the teams to beat. The Warriors will have their starting five, including all-leaguer Greg Jones back this season.

The Warriors are the only team ever to top the Rams in regular season play. The Rams, in taking the title for the past two years, lost only one league game each season — both to South San Francisco.

Giammona said Jefferson and Terra Nova also will be teams to watch.

The Rams opened their season yesterday in a practice game against Mission High School of San Francisco. Their first league contest is against El Camino January 15.

Entry Blanks Readied

Entry blanks will be available, beginning Monday, for Daly City's annual Yuletide Basketball Classic, sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department.

The Classic will run Monday through Wednesday nights of each week of the Christmas holiday period. Games will be played at 6.15 each evening of the tournament.

The blanks will be available at the Westmoor and Jefferson High School physical education departments and at the Recreation Department office.

The tournament is open to all high school boys attending school or living in Daly City and not competing on a varsity or 130 basketball team.

Last year, the Lucky Internationals, led by Jim Fair, won the tournament title.

Further information may be obtained by calling the Recreation Department at PL 5-0850.

Louanne's Datebook

By Louanne Heath

STILL FACED with the arduous task of shopping for those you wish to remember during the holidays? Wishing you had a few bits of gay Christmas accessories to brighten your home during December?

If you fit in either category the Mothers' Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help will be most happy to help you. On Sunday, following the 8 a.m. Mass and continuing until 2 p.m., the women will present their annual Christmas Sale in the school auditorium at 80 Wellington Avenue.

According to Mrs. O. Walter Mignault, publicity chairman, the sewing group has been busy all year making exquisite towels, aprons and pillowcases. As a special surprise, the sewing chairman, Mrs. George Swain, has added some new items which will delight those who arrive early enough to see them—advance information indicates that they are sure to be sold out almost immediately!

Mrs. James McClung, decorations committee chairman, will also present a wide variety of Christmas bric-a-brac in the decorations booth. Imported figurines, Christmas cards, wrapping paper and ribbon will be among those things featured in the gift booth, Mrs. Mignault reports.

The members of the sale committee invite the public to drop in the auditorium, browse about and enjoy a light repast.

With the work on the Christmas sale completed the mothers will enjoy a party of their own on Thursday, December 10.

Mrs. Mignault, Mrs. Tony Pacheco and Mrs. Lloyd Pool, are planning to make this an "old fashioned Christmas Party" with all the trimmings!

The party will be held in the school auditorium beginning at 8 p.m. and all members are requested to begin shopping for a gift of about one dollar value to be placed under the tree. At a given time, some, the name of the "someone" is being kept a closely guarded secret, will distribute the packages to the guest.

Members should plan now to attend and enjoy the fun, Mrs. Mignault said.

THE PACIFICA Branch of the Federated Womens' Club increased its membership by 11 at the November meeting according to Mrs. Jean Silverman, publicity chairman for the unit.

On the agenda with the initiation ceremonies was a home decorating demonstration by Robert Kovacik and Patrica Traubal of the American Craft Center in San Francisco. The pair exhibited unique bric-a-brac, lush pillows and novel ashtrays, all hand-crafted products of the center to designed to personalize decorating schemes.

The next meeting will be a Christmas Party on December 15 in the home of Mrs Wilma Burton, 1103 Rosita Road, in the Linda Mar section of Pacifica. A special award and a gift exchange are planned, Mrs. Silverman has announced.

MEMBERS OF the Mary's Help Nurse's Alumni will be privileged to hear talks by Sister Hermine and Father Francis Wajda, long-time chaplain of the hospital, at their annual reunion.

Reservations are rolling in to the Champagne Luncheon to be held this Saturday in the Olympic Club in San Francisco, according to Mrs. Joan Conway. More than 400 invitations have been mailed and responses have been received from all over the state.

Patti Stolz, director of the Belle-tones and the Daly City Community chorus will be the featured entertainer.

HOME FROM a three-week visit to the "land of the tall corn," are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lee of Colma.

PACIFICA'S Edna Laurel Calhan will be director of the program for the sixty-fourth annual Founder's Day Luncheon sponsored by the Daughters of California Pioneers this Saturday afternoon in the Walnut Suite of the Hilton Hotel in San Francisco.

Members of the organization and their guests are urged to make their reservations immediately by calling Mrs. Hugh J. Kevile, 18 Clarendon Road in Burlingame; Mrs. William Anderson, 1151 Westfield Drive, Menlo Park, or Mrs. Calhan, 560 Dolphin Drive in Pacifica.

MR. AND MRS. James Lamon will succeed Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Schmitt as chairmen of the Parent Workshop Program at Jose Ortega School, according to Mrs. Alberta Sullivan of the P-TA unit at the school.

The Schmitts, founders and former chairmen, have resigned because they plan to move from the district this year, Mrs. Sullivan said.

For those who have not yet been introduced to the workshop concept of Parent-Teacher co-operation, Mrs. Sullivan explains that the program is sponsored by the P-TA of the school and is charged with assisting the classroom teachers to accomplish the necessary but time-consuming tasks which help with the instruction of children.

Specifically, members of the workshop provide extra material that teachers have wanted but may have been unable to obtain because of the time and resources required. The parents donate time and talent to help reduce the cost of instructional materials and create greater understanding among parents of the school's program by involving more people in a service oriented program that is designed to improve the efficiency of the school.

With the school providing the materials and the parents providing the labor, the members of the Ortega workshop estimate that they can produce instructional aids for as little as 10 per cent of the cost of similar aids purchased commercially. Not only do the parents feel they are saving money, they also feel they are freeing the teachers from extra work and giving them extra time for lesson planning, research and to expend creative efforts in areas where they will tend to improve the teaching program.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Lamon during the next few months are the Schmitts and Mrs. David Massing, layout organizer and copyist. Mrs. Dale Emde is the illustrator for the group.

TV SET STOLEN

The Mission Bell Motel at 6843 Mission Street, Daly City, reported to police last week that a television set had been stolen from a unit.

Some Volkswagen owners look down on other Volkswagen owners.

When you graduate from a Volkswagen Sedan to a Volkswagen Station Wagon, you really step up in the world.

The Station Wagon stands a good foot taller than other cars.

And it holds more than the biggest conventional wagon you can find.

But the VW Wagon isn't only tall.

It's also short.

We saved 4 feet of hood in front by putting the engine in back.

Big as it is inside, it's only 9 inches longer than the Volkswagen Sedan.

So people who move up to the high-slung model still feel very much at home.

They park in the same little spots.

They still don't worry about freezing or boiling: the engine is air-cooled.

They still go a long way on a gallon of gas (about 24 miles) and a very long way on a set of tires (about 30,000 miles).

And it just tickles them to drive one Volkswagen and look down on a million others.

Sugar 'n' Spice

By Nell Norton

THE FRUITCAKE season is really here and we must get going on baking and storing if we want to have the pleasure of serving these delicious bits of goodness at Christmas. To me, of all the baking done at Christmas time, the beautiful, dark fruitcake is the most rewarding. And the fact that it goes so far in serving makes it a real pleasure.

I know it's simpler to go to the store and buy a fruitcake, but then you lose out on the pleasure of preening and saying, "yes, I made it myself," when your guests exclaim over its delicious goodness.

Before we start the recipes we had better talk a little about the preparation of the pans. Since fruitcakes take such a long time to bake, you give them extra protection by lining the pans with heavy brown paper. Both the pans and the paper should be greased. Do all this before you start mixing your cake, for it's a rather sticky job and you don't want to have to stop in the middle of mixing to do it.

When baking your cakes, place a pan of water in the bottom of the oven. This will keep the top from getting too dry and also makes a nice shine on your cake.

While there is a time given for baking your cakes, be sure to test with a tester (or if you are old-fashioned like me, a clean broom straw).

Now that we have gotten rid of the preliminaries, let's get to the amounts and methods of turning out a Christmas cake.

WHITE FRUIT CAKE

4 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ tespoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup shortening
1½ cups sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
10 egg whites, beaten stiff
1 cup grated coconut
1 pound blanched almonds, slivered fine
1 pound golden raisins
½ pound citron, cut fine
½ pound candied orange peel
½ pound candied pineapple
½ pound candied green cherries
½ pound candied red cherries

Combine all the fruits and nuts. Sift together the flour, soda, baking powder and salt. Sift all together three times. Then sift one cup of the flour over the fruit and nuts.

Cream shortening. Gradually add the sugar and cream together thoroughly. Add remaining flour to this mixture. Beat until smooth. Add lemon juice, the floured fruit and nuts. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a greased paper-lined tube pan and bake in a slow oven. Keep temperature at 250 degrees for 2½ hours and then increase it to 300 degrees and bake 15 minutes longer. Test the cake with a clean broom straw. The finished cake should be firm to the touch.

Cool the cake in the pan thoroughly. Remove from pan and take off the paper wrapping. Wrap in waxed paper and put in a loosely covered container. Or wrap in cheese cloth.

ARE YOU WONDERING what in the world you can do with all those egg yolks? Quite frankly, few of us are ever in the position of being so wealthy that we can make a gold cake. But with all those yolks left, you are as rich as Croesus.

GOLD CAKE

1¼ cups sugar
¾ cup butter
8 egg yolks, beaten
2½ cups sifted cake flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
¾ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg yolks and continue creaming. Sift dry ingredients together three times; add alternately with liquids to creamed mixture. Beat until smooth. Pour into cake pans lined with waxed paper. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 18 to 20 minutes. Makes three nine-inch layers.

"DENTAL HEALTH FACTS"

Regular Dental Care.

Reduction of the consumption of sugar, proper toothbrushing can do much to reduce the prevalence of dental decay in children. All dental decay, however, cannot be prevented. There is no substitute for regular visits to the dentist.

Your children should pay their first visit to the dentist between two and one-half and three years of age, shortly after all their primary teeth have erupted.

There are a number of advantages in early and frequent visits to the dentist.

(1) tooth defects and dental disease can be detected and corrected in their early stages.
(2) the dentist can observe and correct irregularities in the growth of teeth.
(3) pain can be prevented.
(4) the cost of care can be reduced.

OUR HOUSE
IS SO OLD FASHIONED
THAT THE KITCHEN ISN'T
EVEN PART OF THE LIVING ROOM.

There's something about these "up to date" houses; they seem to have a rule. All rooms must spill over into each other and make one, big open arena. The family room with toys, TV and tennis shoes should look into the kitchen. The kitchen with celery, smells and sauce pans has to be open to the dining room. The dining room with rumpled napkins and crushed cigarettes should be an open extension of the living room. And on and on it goes.

Traditional Homes in Burlingame said it's about time we stopped this open season on privacy. Close off the family room and make it into a separate playroom or den. Close off the kitchen; Mom doesn't want to be reminded of the dirty dishes. Close off the dining room, the meal's over. And close off the living room. "Let's go sit in the parlour" wasn't such a bad idea after all, was it.

So Traditional Homes did just that, closed off these rooms; put privacy back into today's home. Oh, some people may call us old fashioned. But privately, between us, do you think they could be a little jealous?

If you too have some "old fashioned" ideas about houses, write and tell us. Traditional Homes, 1801 Sebastian Drive, Burlingame, California.

Here, you can enjoy dancing nightly in the lounge and feast on a delicious mahogany broiled steak in the Crystal Dining Room, at prices you can afford. Only minutes by good highway from either Squaw Valley or Reno . . . The Playboy Magazine photographer—on Broadwey to "shoot" Big Al's—ventured into Peppermint Tree to add a little "local color" to the story and wound up head over heels with "Playmate" fever, via statuesque Swimmer Diane DeMarco. Clicking off over 25 rolls of film, and making all kinds of $overtures to pose foldout-style, Diane's reply was a NO! (a "maybe" would have been worth a trip to Chicago and a "yes," $4,500 cash right then and there).

Ten foreign students from San Francisco State College will be honored at the 11 a.m. morning worship service at the [illegible] Church Sunday.

Following the service the students will be hosted by church families at Sunday dinner.

The students are teachers of English from different countries taking special training under Fulbright scholarships. Jack Gobel is church chairman for the semi-annual project.

There will also be a service at 9:30 a.m., according to Pastor Herbert Tweedie.

Religious Door Contest Planned

The Italian Catholic Federation of Colma Branch 19 will again hold its Outdoor Religious Christmas display contest.

Three trophy awards will be presented. The trophies will be sponsored by Lucca Market, Cypress Hills Golf Course and The Relish Bakery.

LOOKING over a large, pebble mosaic in Bethlehem Lutheran Church's new sanctuary are the Rev. Dr. Gaylerd Falde, left, president of the South Pacific District of the American Lutheran Church, and the Rev. George S. Johnson, pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran. The mosaic is in the narthex of the church, which was dedicated Sunday afternoon. Reverend Falde delivered the dedicatory address. The mosaic is entitled, "O Holy Night" and was created by Margaret Baker of San Francisco. (Post-Times Photo)

250 Attend Dedication At Bethlehem Lutheran

More than 250 persons gathered Sunday afternoon for the formal dedication of Bethlehem Lutheran Church's striking new sanctuary at 533 Hickey Boulevard in the Fairmont subdivision of Pacifica.

The Rev. Dr. Gaylerd Falde of Los Angeles, president of the South Pacific District of the American Lutheran Church delivered the dedicatory address.

The Rev. George S. Johnson, pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran, conducted the service.

Present for the dedication ceremonies were more than 20 clergymen from neighboring communities, representatives of Henry Doelger Builder Company, which built the church and Warren Gilbert, the architect.

One of the dominant features of the sanctuary is a six-foot square mosaic in the narthex, entitled "O Holy Night." The work was created by artist Margaret Baker of San Francisco.

It depicts the star of Bethlehem shining down upon the city of Bethlehem. In creating the mosaic, the artist polished each pebble individually to bring out its coloring.

Speaker Set At Good News

The Rev. Robert E. Harrison, an associate evengelist with the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, will be guest minister at the 7 p.m. service, Sunday at Good News Chapel in South San Francisco.

Reverend Harrision has just returned from British Honduras and Jamaica where he conducted evangelistic meetings in key cities. In the last six years his ministry has taken him to Europe, Africa, Central America, and the Caribbean.

Under the auspices of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, two trips were made to the continent of Africa where united evangelistic meetings were conducted in Liberia, Sierra, Ghana, Ethiopia, Nigeria, and Kenya. At present he maintains three radio boradcasts a week across Africa on station ELWA.

In early January, Rev. Harrison will return to Europe and Africa for a series of evangelistic crusades.

He is a graduate of San Francisco State College and the Bethany Bible College in Santa Cruz, and has studied at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. He is a soloist and song leader and is considered one of the finest gospel pianist in America. He was song leader for the San Francisco for Christ Crusade during September of this year.

Approximately 1,860 persons attended a public Bible talk Sunday of the Jehovah's Witnesses at a weekend convention at the Scottish Rite Temple.

COFFEE CAKE—A two-layer affair with a creamy filling. Its topping is rich with coconut and sweet with maple-honey flavored syrup.

An Extra Special Coffee-Cake Treat

A COFFEE cake that is an extra-special treat boasts a layer of vanilla cream filing and a coconut topping drenched with maple-honey flavored syrup. It's called Bee Cake; perhaps you have admired it in bakeries and have tasted it. If you enjoy baking with yeast, you may wish to try the following recipe for this interesting confection.

BEE CAKE

¾ cup milk
¼ cup butter margarine
¼ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1 package active dry yeast
¼ cup warm water
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
3 cups sifted flour
Coconut Topping
One-third cup maple-honey flavored syrup
Vanilla Cream Filling

Grease a 13x9x2-inch baking pan; line bottom with waxed paper; grease paper.

In a small saucepan, scald the milk; remove from heat; add butter, sugar and salt; stir until butter is melted; cool to lukewarm.

In a large mixing bowl, sprinkle the yeast over the warm water; stir until dissolved. Add lukewarm milk mixture, egg yolks and lemon rind. Add flour, 1 cup at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Cover and let rise in a warm (80 degrees) draft-free place until doubled — about 1 hour. Stir down dough; beat 1 minute. Spread evenly in prepared pan; cover. Let rise as previously until doubled — about 45 minutes. Spread Coconut Topping over top of dough. Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven until golden brown—about 25 minutes. At once spoon the maple-honey flavored syrup over the top; let stand until syrup is absorbed — about 5 minutes. Turn out on wire rack; remove paper; turn right side up; cool.

Split cake in half horizontally. Spread Vanilla Cream Filling over bottom half; replace top half. Serve at once or refrigerate until serving time.

COCONUT TOPPING

¾ cup sugar
½ cup butter or margarine
2 tablespoons milk
¼ teaspoon almond extract
1 can (3½ ounces) flaked coconut (about 1 and one-third cups)
2 tablespoons blanched toasted slivered almonds.

In a small skillet stir together all the ingredients. Heat gently, stirring, until butter and sugar are melted. Coo.

VANNILLA CREAM FILLING

1 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon sugar
1 package (3¾ ounces) vanilla-flavored instant pudding
1 cup heavy cream

Into a mixing bowl pour the milk, vanilla, sugar and instant pudding. With a rotary beater, beat slowly just until blended—about 1 minute. Let stand 5 minutes to set. Whip cream just until it holds soft peaks; fold into pudding.

Cranberries Give a Pot Roast Color

When the family brings home the appetites of lumberjacks the menu should feature a hearty cut of meat where seconds and even thirds can be called for.

With beef supplies plentiful, the heel of round or a rolled rump pot roast fits this bill of fare perfectly.

Both cuts come from the hindquarter, the section known as the round or rump. Both cuts are easy to carve. A beef heel of round is a wedge-shaped cut from the lower part of the round. It has little fat and is considered less tender and should be braised as a pot roast.

Rump roasts of high quality can also be roasted; otherwise, they're considered less tender and should be braised as in this pot roast recipe which features whole cranberries with cloves and cinnamon for spicing.

Cranberry Pot Roast

3 to 4 pound beef heel of round or rolled rump pot roast
¼ cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 cup cranberries
1¼ cups water
8 whole cloves
2 sticks cinnamon
3 tablespoons sugar
Flour for gravy, if desired.

Mix flour, salt and pepper. Dredge meat in seasoned flour. Brown in lard or drippings. Boil together cranberries with 1 cup water until skins pop. Pour over meat and add remaining ¼ cup water with cloves and cinnamon sticks. Cover tightly and cook slowly 3½ to 4 hours or until tender. Remove meat and strain liquid. Add sugar and thicken cooking liquid with flour for gravy, if desired. 6 to 8 servings

In a small saucepan over low heat, stir together the sugar, vinegar, salt, cloves and allspice until sugar dissolves and mixture is very hot; pour over peppers. Cover and refrigerate overnight.

ROYAL ROAST

3-rib standing beef roast (third, fourth and fifth ribs)
1 large clove garlic
1 teaspoon seasoned salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon paprika

Have entire shortrib section cut from beef to use another time. Insert peeled slivered garlic wherever possible in meat without slitting. Rub mixture of seasoned salt, pepper and paprika over meat and fat surfaces. Roast, fat side up, in a shallow pan in a moderate (350 degrees) oven with meat thermometer as a guide to doneness. If meat is at room temperature, count on about 20 minutes per pound for 140-degree beef. Allow cooked roast to stand at room temperature for 30 minutes before carving.

Peanut Crust on A Delicious Pie

Dessert and coffee for the bridge club in the early afternoon or later in the evening should be an interesting sweet. For handsome eating, serve a delicious pie with a peanut crust and a delicate chocolate chiffon filling.

The crust is made with the dry toasted peanuts that have a special herb and salt coating, and graham cracker crumbs to give a delightfully crunchy taste sensation and a gentle flavor contrast to the chocolate chiffon filling.

PEANUT CHOCOLATE CHIFFON PIE

The Crust:
- 1¼ cups dry toasted peanuts
- ¾ cup graham cracker crumbs
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 5 tablespoons melted butter or marjarine

Preheat oven 375 degrees Fahrenheit. Chop the nuts very, very fine and mix with graham cracker crumbs and sugar. Add melted butter and mix well. Spoon mixture into 9-inch pie plate, pressing mixture on bottom and sides of pie plate with back of tablespoon. Bake for 7-8 minutes. Remove from oven and cool before filling.

Chocolate Chiffon Filling:
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatine
- ¼ cup sugar
- ⅛ teaspoon salt
- 3 egg yolks
- 1¼ cups milk
- 1 cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 3 egg whites
- ¼ cup sugar

Mix together gelatine, sugar, salt. Beat egg yolks until bubbly. Put in top of saucepan. Add gelatine mixture, milk, chocolate to egg yolks. Put saucepan over hot water. Cook over hot, not boiling water, stirring until chocolate is melted and mixture coats a metal spoon. Remove from heat, add vanilla. Cool slightly. Then chill until mixture is consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Meanwhile, beat egg whites until soft peaks form when beater is lifted. Gradually, beat in sugar, tablespoon at a time, beating after each addition. Fold gelatine mixture into egg whites and spoon into cooled pie shell. Chill. If you wish, garnish with whipped cream and dry toasted peanuts.

For Two Other Crust Variations Try:

PEANUTE VANILLA WAFER CRUST
- 1 cup dry toasted peanuts
- ¾ cup vanilla wafer crumbs
- 5 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

Preheat oven 375 degrees Fahrenheit. Chop the peanuts very, very fine. Mix peanuts and vanilla cookie crumbs together. Add melted butter and mix well. Spoon mixture into 9-inch pie plate and press against bottom and sides of pie plate with back of tablespoon. Bake 7-8 miutes. Remove from oven and cool before filling. Butterscotch pie filling is delicious in this crust.

PEANUT GINGER SNAP CRUST
- ¾ cup dry toasted peanuts
- ¾ cup ginger snap crumbs
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- ¼ cup melted butter or margarine

Preheat oven 375 degrees Fahrenheit. Chop the peanuts very, very fine. Mix peanuts, cookie crumbs, and sugar together. Add butter and mix all together well. Put crumbs into 9-inch pie plate, pressing firmly onto bottom and sides of pie plate with back of tablespoon. Bake 7-8 minutes. Remove from oven and cool before filling. Pumpkin chiffon filling is delicious with this crust.

- Salt and freshly ground pepper

In a 10-inch skillet in the hot butter, gently cook the onion and drained mushrooms until onion is golden—20 to 30 minutes; push to one side. to free side of skillet, add a half cup of the reserved mushroom liquid, the mustard, paprika, Worcestershire sauce and beef bouillon cube; stir over very low heat to dissolve cube without evaporating liquid. Add steak and sour cream; mix well; heat but do not boil. Add salt and pepper to taste. Makes four servings. We like to use rare-cooked steak for this dish so that the meat does not get overdone.

Oven Saves Watching The Chicken

Chicken from the oven means no last-minute watching!

Savory Baked Chicken Rice
Tossed Salad Rolls
Angel Cake w/t Chocolate Sauce

SAVORY BAKED CHICKEN
- 6 large pices of frying chicken
- ⅓ cup flour
- 1 teaspoon each paprika and garlic salt
- 2 tablespoons each oil and butter
- 6 medium-thick slices tomato
- 2 tablespoons minced onion
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- ½ cup each white wine and chicken broth
- Avacado slices

Coat chicken with a mixture of the flour, paprika and garlic salt. Heat the oil and butter in a large skillet and brown the chicken slowly and well in it. Arrange chicken pieces close together in a shallow baking pan; sprinkle with onion and lemon juice; add the mixed wine and broth. Cover and bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until tender — 30 to 40 minutes. Garnish with avocado. Makes six servings.

Tasty Snack

Cooked smoked sausage links by broiling, panbroiling, panfrying or in a small amount of water. Cut links into 1-inch pieces. Place on wooden picks with stuffed olives and pickled onions.

A Leftover Ham Idea

Designed for leftover ham!

French-toasted Ham Sandwiches
Fruit Salad Beverage

FRENCH-TOASTED HAM SANDWICHES
- 1 cup finely chopped cooked ham
- ¼ cup mayonnaise
- Prepared mustard to taste
- 8 slices bread
- 3 eggs, slightly beaten
- ¾ cup milk
- Dash of salt
- ¼ cup butter or margarine

Mix together the ham, mayonnaise and mustard; make four sandwiches with the mixture and the bread; cut each into two triangles. Beat eggs with milk and salt enough to blend; dip sandwiches into mixture. Melt two tablespoons of the butter in a large skillet; add sandwiches and brown slowly; turn, adding remaining butter and brown other side. Makes four servings.

BETTER BUSINESS

Travel Problems Are Presented

By LORENE BEASLEY
Editor, Better Business Bureau "Barometer"

THE TRAVEL agent today arranges for vacation trips in almost every category. He will sell an all-inclusive flight to a football game, including hotel, transfers and meals. He will plan a luxury cruise to the Carribbean or, should his client wish, an African safari.

The agent handles and advises on matters that would consume weeks and even months of the individual's time. He gives from his professional experience, advice on schedules concerning train connections, travel and baggage insurance, language study material, traveler's checks, foreign currency exchange, visas, passports and health requirements.

The information concerning hotel accommodations is very important.

What you don't know, will hurt you! One of the most frequent complaints received by the Better Business Bureaus concerns dissatisfaction with accommodations a tourist receives both in this country and abroad.

A FIRST class hotel abroad may be the best hotel in that area but still may not measure up to the traveler's concept of a first class hotel. A person planning a trip should ascertain from his travel agent just what first class or second class actually means in each city or country he plans to visit.

He should carefully check the quality of his hotel room, whether it is with or without bath and if it includes local taxes and gratuities.

The class of transportation varies and some tours which have been featured in advertising as "first class" actually provide "economy" flights or second-class rail accommodations.

Coast Safety Group Now a Commission

Tentative by-laws for Pacifica's new Safety Commission last week have been referred to a sub-committee for study and revision, according to Police Chief Neil Tremaine.

Previously known as the Public Safety Committee, the group was given added stature this month when the City Council adopted a resolution to promote it to a commission.

Among other action at a recent meeting, commissioners considered a request from Fairway Park residents for a stop sign at Lunday Way where a frontage road enters the area from the new freeway.

Chief Tremaine said the commissioners asked the city staff to take traffic counts while the commission continues to study the matter.

The commission also prepared a recommendation to the city council, asking it to request that the state provide a highway equestrian crossing in Linda Mar.

More Coast Road Opens

More of Pacifica's new freeway will open Friday when southbound lanes from Clarenden Bridge will begin receiving traffic, according to Dino Casinelli, state project engineer.

Two northbound lanes from Avalon were opened last week. Casinelli said that if the weather remains good, all four lanes of the freeway through Pacifica will be open by Christmas.

He said that the only obstacle now holding up the opening of Bridge is the installation of two flashing warning lights at the Sharp Park Gold Course. These lights will warn drivers proceeding south to slow down at Westport Drive for a grade crossing. At this point, cars will leave the freeway and a lower speed limit will be in effect.

Paving under the Paloma Bridge now is under way. If the weather stays fair, the entire freeway will be paved in two weeks, Casinelli predicted.

D.C. Girl Is Contest Entry

Michelle Levesque, 17, of 792 Higate Drive, Daly City has been named "Miss Datesetter" in the annual competition held at Macy's to determine the local representative in a national competition to be held early next year.

A senior at Mercy High School and a member of Macy's Hi Set, she received a gold watch for winning the local competition.

Firefigther In S. S. F. Is Found Dead

South San Francisco fireman Robert J. Murphy, 34, was found dead Saturday noon in the clothes closet of his apartment at 800 Memorial Avenue, an apparent suicide by hanging.

Deputy Coroner Robert Jessen said Murphy's body was discovered by a friend who had not seen him since Thanksgiving Day.

There was no suicide note, said Jessen.

Fellow firemen said his death was "a great loss," and that he was "a good fireman." He had been in the department nine years.

Murphy had been seriously burned four years ago in a 25-acre grass fire started by children playing with firecrackers.

A native of Omaha, Neb., he had lived in South San Francisco 11 years.

Survivors include his wife, Marianne, and three children, Matthew, Natalie, and Deborah; his mother, Mrs. Emma Safford, Daly City; two brothers, Charles, San Francisco, and Kenneth, Salinas; and a sister, Mrs. Dorothy Barulich, South San Francisco.

Requiem mass will be celebrated today at 9:30 a.m. at Mater Dolorosa Church, with interment at Holy Cross Cemetery.

NOTE—In the above tabulation of the tides the daily tides are given in the order of the occurrence commencing with the early morning tide and the successive tides as they occur. On some days but three tides occur the fourth occurring the following morning.

The columns at heights give the elevation of each tide above or below the level of Coast Survey chart surroundings. The numbers are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign or dash (-) when the numbers are subtracted from the depths given by the chart (U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey).

TODAY'S CONTEST WINNERS

MARILYN McCALRON
Rt. 1, Box 365
Half Moon Bay, Calif.

Marilyn is in the third grade at Half Moon Bay Elementary School. She is 8 years old and has one brother age 6, and three sisters ages, 10, 15, 16. Her favorite hobby is roller skating and "helping mother".

Marilyn writes: "Christmas is God's birthday. Christmas is not just to have fun it is time for happiness in every family in California. Christmas is fun in some ways it is sad in other ways. It is time for Christmas carols."

ROBERT CASSETTA
925 So. Humboldt St.
San Mateo, Calif.

Robert is 8 years old and in the third grade at St. Matthew's Parochial School. He has an older sister, 10. Baseball, football and models are his hobbies and he likes to sing, too. He is a Cub Scout. Robert writes: "Christmas to me means the birthday of our Saviour, who did many beautiful things in the world. It is the most beautiful and happy day a child can have around a pretty tree, gifts and many good things. But I am often thinking of those poor children who do not have parents or friends to make Christmas a happy day for them. On Christmas day the first thing I do is go to church to honor and thank God for giving me good parents and health and also pray for peace in the world. This year I saw my two grandmothers for the first time since I am born and mom said that we are not going to have everything for Christmas because our trip cost us lots of money, so I just hope Santa will bring the football I asked for since I am a Cub Scout. I just love to have one. God bless America and Merry Christmas to all."

YOU CAN BE A WINNER, TOO!
